THE DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS

The Department of Fine Arts offers majors in Music and Dramatic Art, and plans call for similar provisions in Pictorial Art.

In the Music Department extra-curricular activities include public and semi-public recitals in piano, voice, and violin. The Choir sings at daily chapel services and Sunday Vespers, and formed the nucleus of the chorus of 185 voices which aided in producing the Messiah at Christmas. The chief offering of the combined glee clubs this year was the production of Gilbert and Sullivan's Iolanthe. In addition to its annual Music Week concert, the Orchestra played the accompaniment for the Messiah and Iolanthe. The Band performs at football games and gives a spring moonlight concert at the amphitheater in the college woods. Under the direction of student and faculty commentators, the Disc Club, composed of music lovers, meets bi-weekly to hear the latest recorded music. The College String Quartet and Trio appear on frequent occasions.

Under the Dramatic Art Department monthly studio teas are given to provide opportunity for public performance. Directed by this department, the Maryville College Players presented Pride and Prejudice, and the literary societies and the Senior Class offered their annual productions. The Confab Club, composed of students of the Dramatic Art class, gives an opportunity for putting into practice in an informal group those principles learned in class.

Several exhibits were given under the direction of the Art Department. Besides student offerings, traveling exhibits were on display from the American Federation of Arts, of which this department is a member. The Elizabeth Gowdy Baker Memorial Art Gallery, situated in Anderson Hall, is open daily to the public.

This department cooperates with the Physical Training Department in the annual May Day production given in the amphitheater.

ATHLETICS

1937 FOOTBALL SEASON

A Highlander football team, lauded as the best in all-around efficiency that has been produced here in recent years, narrowly missed finishing the season with the Smoky Mountain Conference championship. Winning four loop battles without a setback, the Scots met East Tennessee Teachers in the season's final game, a game on whose outcome hinged Maryville's claim to the championship. After overcoming Teachers' 7-0 lead, and going out in front by reason of Junior Odell's sensational field goal, the Highlanders finished the game on the short end of the 13-10 score.

That defeat dropped Maryville to third place in the conference ranks. Chattanooga handed the Scots a loss in the season's opening game, being the only team excepting Teachers able to turn the trick this year.

The team's prowess and efficiency reached their peak in the next to the final game, when a highly-rated King Tornado was soundly thumped on its own field by a hard-driving, determined squad from Maryville.

Decisive victories were registered over Tusculum, Hiwassee, Milligan, and Cumberland, also. But the Lenoir Rhyne Bears, after being outplayed all the way in a sea of mud, held on the four-yard stripe, sending the Highlanders home with a scoreless tie.

With but two regulars, Captain Jim Renfro and his alternate, Jim Proffitt, lost through graduation, all indications point to an even more successful 1938 season.

LETTERMEN OF 1937

One of the biggest reasons for the Scotties' success in 1937 was hefty Fred Tulloch, bulwark against line attacks . . . Proffitt, alternate captain and dependable lineman, earned the respect and admiration of every Maryville supporter. This was Jim's last year, and his best. . . . A hard player and a powerful one, husky S. K. Taylor plugged many a gap in the Scot forward wall. . . . With two more years of football left, Kramer has proved to be one of Coach Honaker's ablest and most willing men. . . . Freshman Gene McCurry, Gibraltar of the line, has weight and courage, plus attractive modesty. . . . Recognized for his fight and his ineradicable grin, Cap'n Jim will be missed next year. There may be another center, but there can't be another Renfro. . . . Switched from back to end, Odell enjoyed his best year on the gridiron. In the kicking department Junior was without a peer in the conference, and his surprise runs from kick formation had his opponents dizzy. Always an adept passer, Odell this year demonstrated his snaring ability as well. Next year's alternate captain. . . . Lanky Jim Etheredge's outstanding work at end was exceptionally gratifying, for the loss of all the '36 ends had caused much concern and speculation. But Etheredge and Odell, both shifted from backfield berths, came through admirably. . . . A powerhouse of stamina and punch, J. D. Hughes, pile-driving back, kept the rooters on the edges of their seats with his slashing off-tackle plunges, his shifty open-field work, and his wide-awake defensive play. A first-year man, Hughes has a future. . . . No man was better liked or more highly rated by his teammates than Al Burris, sturdy signal caller, and captain for 1938. A steady field general, Al had the knack of knowing just "what play will work when," and no small share of the past season's success is due to him. At carrying the ball for long rides through a broken field, Al ranks second to none on the squad.

LETTERMEN OF 1937

With the Highlanders starting the season depending on a backfield composed mostly of Freshmen, it seemed doubtful that the team could make much progress this year. But the new material came through in first-rate style, working together like veterans. . . . George Morton proved himself to be a valuable man to have around in the Scots' backfield. . . . A seasoned linesman, Obie Jenkins again gave his best in grit and fight. . . . Davis, diminutive backfield artist, showed that a good little man is mighty troublesome to the opposition. Chuck cleared the way for more than one spectacular run. . . . Burns was another whose scrappiness made up for weight deficiency. A game fighter. . . . At end, Tom Taylor rendered plenty of valuable service. He should see a lot of action next year. . . . Faulkner again played a slashing, fighting game, making his presence felt every minute. . . . Quarterback Burris' tough little understudy, pint-size Scott Honaker, was another Freshman back who turned in some excellent performances throughout the season. Hard as nails, tiny Honaker came bouncing up after the most vicious tackles. He should be valuable in future seasons. . . . George Garner, too, deserves recognition for the fine play which earned him his letter. . . . Art Byrne, the tall, red-headed, efficient manager, was liked by everyone. . . . Joe Swift and Lefty Hernandez ably assisted.

Many of the particularly thrilling features of the season are still remembered. . . . Burris ripping through the Tusculum line, outgaining the entire Pioneer team. . . . A surprisingly scrappy Hiwassee Tiger, outfighting the Scots the first half. . . . Hughes intercepting a Tiger pass and streaking ninety-seven yards for a touchdown. . . . And J. D. repeating the trick against Milligan. . . . Odell's thirty-five-yard run on a fake kick at Lenoir Rhyne. . . . Hughes running wild against Cumberland. . . . The whole Scottie team stunning King with two scores in the first period. . . . Odell outwitting and outrunning the entire Tornado team with a sixty-yard touchdown run from punt formation. . . . Tense excitement preceding the fray with Teachers. . . . The play-by-play description telephoned to the student body in the chapel. . . . Bedlam breaking loose when Odell's field goal sent the Scots ahead of E. T. T. . . . Hushed disappointment a few minutes later.

The fine caliber of the Highlanders' defense may have been overshadowed at times by the more sensational offensive plays. In half of her games, Maryville denied her opponents a single score, while two of the remaining contests netted the enemy only one touchdown. Such airtight defensive work, coupled with an aggressive, brainy attack, gave the 1937 Highlanders a commendable season's record.

The Scotties did not win the S. M. C. championship, but they did play some colorful games this year. Four contests were decided by the slim margin of one or two points. The Maryville spectators were given the opportunity to see the smooth-functioning Marshall College quintet put on an exhibition of first-class basketball.

One of the highlights of the season was the speed and spirit displayed by spark-plug Boydson Baird. Howard McGill continued his sensational court play, scoring an average of 12.3 points per game. Russell was close behind McGill in scoring honors, with Weldon Baird third.

Odell, Black, and Hernandez will be lost to the team next year. Odell, particularly, has long been a mainstay of the team. But the work of several new men, especially Russell, Boydson Baird, and Honaker, indicated that the 1939 Scot basketball team will be very much in the battle for the conference title.

ON THE COURT . . .

1937 SMOKY MOUNTAIN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Recovering their winning form brilliantly after a somewhat shaky start, the Highlanders of 1937 baseball finished by annexing their fifteenth conference championship in the past seventeen years. Because Milligan played fewer than the required number of loop foes and games, her claim to the title was ruled out.

The Scots dropped two contests to Carson-Newman early in the season, and then came back to trounce the Eagles soundly the next two times they met, turning in a season's record of ten conference victories and two defeats. The total number of wins for the year, including non-conference games, was eighteen out of twenty-five starts.

Much could be said in praise of the playing of the champions. Wilburn's phenomenal work on the mound, where he ranked with the best of the seasoned trio of Ashby, Collins, and Parker, was equaled by his expert playing in right field and his effectiveness at bat. He was unbeaten in the pitcher's box, and his one-hit conquest of Emory and Henry is still talked about. Peppery Don Cross, infielder later signed by the Atlanta Southern Association team, turned in the highest batting average, with Parker, Wilburn, Hernandez, and Evers following.

Graduation brought to a close the college careers of Ashby, Blazer, Cross, and Manager Teague; but Collins, Wilburn, Burris, Odell, Hernandez, Parker, Evers, Swearingen, and Black will be back to furnish the foundation for the team of 1938. More power to the champions!

The close of the 1937 track season found the Maryville Scots edged out of the Smoky Mountain championship by Milligan, marking only the second time that a Thrower-coached team has failed to finish with the conference track crown. In the state meet, the Highlanders took third place, behind Tennessee and Southwestern.

Getting off to a favorable start against the Tennessee Vols by taking four firsts and eight seconds, the team gave promise of developing into a surprise winner. But just before the L. M. U. meet, Roy Talmage, who had won the quarter-mile and half-mile events at Tennessee, contracted the mumps, which put him out of action for the rest of the season. Coupled with this unfortunate happening was the fact that both home meets, with Davidson and Chattanooga, had to be run on a water-soaked track.

The Maryville boys turned in wins over L. M. U. and Chattanooga, bowing before Tennessee and Davidson.

Baird, middle-distance and weight man, provided the biggest thrills, taking ten first places. He set a new conference record by tossing the discus 121¾ feet, shattered the quarter-mile mark by covering the distance in 50.5 seconds, and ran the half-mile in 2:02.6. Propst was another outstanding man, winning six first places in spite of a football injury. The fast-stepping quartet of Fish, Orr, Morgan, and Baird set a mile relay record of 3:29.2.

Lettermen are Talmage, Rugh, Baird, Savitski, Etheredge, Propst, Tulloch, Morgan, Myers, Dowell, Orr, and Manager Buxton. Dowell was the only man lost to the 1938 team by graduation.

Getting off to an unfortunate start by dropping their first four meets, Coach Thrower's grapplers came back in the second half of the season to take three decisive victories before they were dealt a fifth setback in the final. For the first time in eight years, the state wrestling title failed to come to Maryville.

The Highlanders showed plenty of skill and strength in vanquishing the U. T. matmen twice, and Knoxville "Y" once; but Thrower's men absorbed one defeat from Knoxville "Y," two from Appalachian Teachers, one from Vanderbilt, and one from North Carolina's high-class outfit.

Consistently good throughout the difficult schedule were veterans Propst, Tulloch, and Renfro. Jenkins was forced out of action in the middle of the season because of an injury, and Propst moved up to his weight class, leaving Hahn to fill the 165-pound division.

Although Propst, Renfro, and Jenkins will be badly missed next year, Tulloch, Meares, Hahn, Astles, Evaul, Mooney, and Everett should furnish the basis for a squad which will be out to get back that state crown.

WRESTLING

TENNIS

Playing good tennis through a season marked by rained-out matches, Coach Fischbach's 1937 team finished with seven victories and three losses. Tusculum, Centre, Carson-Newman, Union, and Cumberland went down to defeat before the determined Maryville netmen, while Tennessee and East Tennessee Teachers gave the Highlanders setbacks. Matches with Chattanooga, Union, Carson-Newman, Centre, and East Kentucky Teachers were among those rained out. Lettermen expected to play important parts in the 1938 season are Colombo, Gillingham, Morrow, and Augenstein.

SWIMMING

Considering the very small squad they had, Coach Fischbach's swimmers this year made creditable showings against the superior U. T. and Kentucky U. mermen. Two decisive wins over Tusculum indicated that in their own class the Scots were plenty good. Wicklund consistently brought in points in the 200 and 100-yard free-style events, while Akana showed amazing stamina in the 200-yard breast and 440 free-style, swimming the latter immediately after the former. Rippeth, Hilditch, Chandler, and Stafford all gave good accounts of themselves.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BASEBALL CHAMPIONS, 1937

In a six-game baseball tournament conducted last spring through the women's point system, the Junior-Senior team carried off the championship by winning three games and losing only one. Especially exciting was the first game, in which the upperclass squad managed to put over a run when it was most needed, defeating the game Sophomore team, 30-29.

FRESHMEN SPEEDBALL CHAMPIONS, 1937

In an extra five-minute period, the Freshman team climaxed a thrilling speedball tournament by playing off a tie with the Sophomores and winning by a single score. The six-game tournament, under the direction of the women's point system, ended with the champion Freshmen victorious over the Sophomores and Junior-Seniors.

Champions, 1938

Defeating the Junior-Senior and the Freshmen teams in two straight games, both by the score of 4-3, the strong Sophomore squad clinched the fall soccer championship. In each game the winning point was made in an extra-time period. The tangle between the Sophs and the Junior-Seniors was particularly close and exciting. In the last game of the three-game tournament the Junior-Senior combination beat the Freshmen, 5-2, to take second place in the ranking.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

Champions, 1938

In a hotly-contested tournament, the powerful Sophomore team finally took the point-system basketball championship. They started by handing the Freshmen a 37-17 defeat. But the Frosh came back in a thriller against the Junior-Seniors, winning by the score of 29-21. In the final and deciding contest of the three-game tournament, the apparently invincible Sophomores annexed the title by defeating the Junior-Senior outfit.

Retreat

The first definite step toward forming a "Y" for women on the campus was made in 1888. In 1894 the Y. W. was actually founded to endure. The years since then have seen the organization grow and expand to include in its program a wide schedule of activities. Interracial meetings, Peace Forum, Artists' Series, Nu Gamma Sigma, Big Sister Movement are some of these activities. The work done at the mission in Maryville and at the orphanage is another side of Y. W.

This year our motto has been "Let your light so shine." The effort has been to make a place for each individual and encourage participation in the work of the association. Through delegates to district, state, and national conferences, whenever possible, a broader insight into the problems of other student groups is gained, and consequently an increased ability to deal with our own.

The Gang

The Maryville College Young Men's Christian Association has grown since its organization in 1877 to be one of the largest college Y. M. C. A.'s in the South. Its activities are three-fold: devotional, fellowship, and athletics, and are conducted by committees on the cabinet appointed for that purpose. It sponsors, jointly with the Y. W. C. A., the College Artists' Series.

The whole spirit of the activities is in keeping with the principles of Christ, and this year is based on the motto:

"Let your light so shine . . ."

Nu Gamma, as a part of the Y. W. C. A. organization, has as its purpose the welcoming and orienting of new girls who come to the hill. Under the leadership of upperclassmen, small groups meet weekly at the beginning of the year to discuss our campus ideals and to help in making adjustments to our campus life. Nu Gamma stands for:
